Bonnewitz Weekly Iris Bulletin

VAN WERT, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 27, 1924

"O call back yesterday, bid time return."

—Shakespeare.

OCT 1

1924

If we gardeners were endowed with the power to "Call back yesterday, bid time return," and rearrange the calendar to suit our needs, I wonder just how many days we would allot to September. I believe that even sixty or ninety days would not be sufficient to take care of the things I would like to do this September. This precious month always brings its rush of garden duties, but the anticipation of future enjoyment spurs us on in our intensified activities. Transplanting Irises and Peonies, filling orders and answering correspondence keeps my garden organization on a strenuous schedule and makes me think often of the "busy bee." But I love the push, the hurry, the rush of it all and I would not have it otherwise, if I could.

Weather has been most favorable and this week finds my Iris transplanting well along, and the invoice of my surplus shows that I can include many varieties in my offer this week not listed in my first circular. I hope to add still other varieties as my planting progresses.

Did you return the card enclosed with last week's list? If you did not, and are interested in these Iris offers, you should return the card enclosed this week, for in the vernacular of the dining car waiter, this is the "last call," and it really is the LAST, for next week's offers will be sent only to those requesting them.

If you are not now interested in quantity Irises, perhaps one of your friends may be. Why not hand him this week's list? If he does not live close to you, why not send me his name and address on the enclosed card, and I will see that these offers are sent to that address.

The thought has occurred to me that the members of your local Iris Society may wish to bunch their orders and obtain the benefit of quantity reductions. I will be glad to send several copies of these offers to any one interested, for distribution among Iris Lovers. Let me know how many you can use and I will send them promptly.

My special offer this week, the Ambassadeur-Prospero Collection, is a wonderful value and it may be advisable to place your order by wire, as no doubt this collection will sell out very early.

LEE R. BONNEWITZ

P. S.—There, I almost forgot to add that all shipments will be forwarded at purchasers' expense. Include, for parcel post charges, five cents additional for each root, or if six or more are ordered include thirty cents additional for each dozen roots. On large shipments express will be cheaper. I accidentally omitted this last week, and came very near overlooking it again.

Have you signed and mailed the card?
